The Code of Conduct is designed to create a safe, respectful, and supportive environment within all parts of CUPE and acts as a framework to deal with complaints. It is meant to enhance the rights and obligations outlined in the CUPE National Constitution, the CUPE Equality Statement and applicable human rights legislation, not replace them.

The above Code of Conduct arises from the National Women’s Task Force (NWTF) report, and Resolution #209 adopted at the 2007 National Convention. Access the full Code of Conduct here: https://www.cupe951.ca/wpcontent/uploads/2023/06/code_of_conduct.pdf.

Question: What is considered for diversity? Are pay bands considered?

Kirk explained that the first consideration is gender, and then a consideration to have members from all departments we represent. We first see who is elected, and then question whether we have a fair representation of electees, as we hope to fill in the gaps. Kirk explained the decision is sent to members through email.

Follow up question about pay bands: Will schedule B be on the negotiating committee?

Kirk answered yes, and further explained that we want to make sure we have one member from Schedule B. Also, one member from childcare who are not listed in pay bands as they are not included in the JEQ process as it stands. Kirk reiterated that the hope is to have a member from every group: a member from Schedule A, pay bands 3-14 and Schedule B, pay bands 12-14.

Question: How do you get on the ballot?

Kirk explained that someone must nominate you first.

11. President's Report – KM

Welcome, friends!

So far, the summer has been fairly quiet. We have biweekly meetings with HR, which have mostly been updates on the encampment, remediation of the lawns, and vandalism at the residence buildings. Additionally, we were introduced to new HR staff: Laurelle Inouye, Jill Little, Laurie Mitchell, and Cynthia Agwo, all of whom were hired within the last two months. This leaves Russell Banzet as the most senior HRC (Human Resources Consultant), with one year at UVic. With so many new folks, we are hopeful to continue the good working relationship we've established with Vanessa Cartwright, Director of Labour Relations & HR Consulting.

On August 21, I met with the UVic Solidarity Group (CUPE, PEA, and the Faculty Association). We discussed the upcoming election, the possibility of a town hall or all-candidates forum, the closure of the pool, PBC elections, and the impact of budget cuts. We are hopeful not to see any more layoffs this year; enrolment is on target, so next year's budget should be back on track.

I also want to encourage everyone to get out and vote in the upcoming provincial election. We hope to share information about an all-candidates forum focused on post-secondary issues.

We are looking forward to electing our negotiation committee and connecting with you via surveys to learn about your priorities as we enter bargaining next year.

In Solidarity,
Kirk Mercer President CUPE 951

For any questions about this report, please contact Kirk Mercer at: president@cupe951.ca

Motion: That the President's report be approved – MSCarried

At this point we were running out of time to present the other reports, Kirk suggested a motion to accept all the reports that were made available at the meeting. After some discussion that members could contact any committee chair to ask questions the following motion was presented. See more under new business.

Motion: to accept all reports as presented at the meeting -MSCarried

12. Head Steward's Report – SL

Hello CUPE 951 Members,

Welcome back to the Fall 2024 term! Welcome new members! The Summer months were not as busy with labour relation issues compared to previous months. We are seeing more collaboration in departments as everyone adjusts to things post budget reductions. There are a few new human resources consultants who have shown great communication skills and understanding for established procedures when solving problems.

There is not much to report except for the usual, albeit infrequent, questions about leaves; sick and vacation time allotments; division of work and provisional appointments; accommodation requests and letters of agreement; as well as the usual requests for term extensions and direct appointments to new positions.

I'm hopeful that the new term will bring opportunities for education and union participation. Please reach out to the Head Steward if you want to become more involved, or if you have any issues you would like to see Stewards address in the future.

In solidarity,

Stephen E. Leckie
Head Steward, CUPE 951

14. Reports of Committees, Delegates

a. OH&S Committee:

OH&S Report - September 2024

Emergency Planning (EP)

Rob Johns reviewed the EP training sessions that are in development for the fall registration. He has also been providing training to RESS community leaders working in the Sngequ House and Cheko'nien House, in particular.

EP is involved with the harm reduction plan for campus. New signage will be posted with the naloxone kits. This signage will indicate where you are in the building, if a call to emergency services is made, to help them find your location.

AED project update

The project, led by Chandra from VPFO, is moving forward to establish AED locations across campus. AEDs will be co-located with naloxone kits. The working group has selected a supplier and FMGT will be completing the installations. Supply is limited at this time with more AEDs on order for further installation across campus. There is anticipated being ~40 AED locations, although this number is not confirmed yet. Installation of AEDs will be prioritized in buildings with higher populations and/or longer hours.

First aid review update

OHSE and CSEC continue to review the new first aid regulations that will come into effect for November, as per WorkSafeBC. The new requirements include an enhanced risk assessment, review of first aid training and kits with an increase in CSEC officers per shift, identification of a first aid room, and a review of hazards and injuries most likely to occur on campus.

In Solidarity,
Nykita Downie (she/her)
Joint Occupational Health & Safety Committee Co-Chair, CUPE 951

b. Benefits Committee:

The Staff Personnel Benefits Committee met on May 29, 2024. It is a joint committee, consisting of members from the unions, as well as management. Your local representatives on this committee are Michael Rheault, Nykita Downie and Heidi Neeves.

In terms of Extended Health claims, numbers have been relatively stable for the past five years, though showing a steady increase. Last year's claim amounts totaled $1,257 for all categories, showing only an $82 increase from the previous year. Numbers of claims by category are also stable, with only a small increase in paramedical treatment claims.

With respect to prescription drug claims, the highest claimed category is mental health and nervous system-related medication. Claims for the previous reporting year showed that mental health meds were over 20% of reported drugs claims. The next highest was for diabetes medications slightly above 10%, and all other categories following, each at or under 10%.

Dental claims have followed the same pattern as Extended Health, with steady increases. Last years' totals amounted to $1444. Per category the only marked increases were in orthodontic claims, and a smaller increase in restorative claims. Otherwise claims per category were stable, with no notable increases.

With that said, our rates were increased this summer to cover projected shortfalls. We would have all received an email outlining the increases in detail during the summer, but overall, the increases amounted to 15% for Extended Health and 40% for Dental. This increase should keep our benefits program in good form for the next few years.

Finally, just a quick reminder of Blue Cross' Preferred Pharmacy Network. This program is to help lower out-of-pocket expenses on prescriptions by using specific pharmacies. These include Costco, Thrifty Foods, Save On Foods, London Drugs and a few others. More information on this program can be found on the Pacific Blue Cross website.

In Solidarity,

Michael Rheault, Staff Personal Benefits committee chair

c. I.D.E.A Committee:

My name is Sarah Rowland, my pronouns are she or they and I am the Chair of the I.D.E.A Committee, which stands for Inclusion, Diversity, Equality, and Accessibility. I wanted to speak briefly about this new committee. Since we have only been active a few months, we are still getting our footing as to what types of things we want to do and what we want to accomplish on this committee. Over these past few months, we have discussed education and training opportunities, what are the best ways we could get information out to our local, we have connected with other unions and working groups on campus such as the Scarborough Charter Steering Committee, and have attended events such as the Pride Parade, to show support. In August, I was honored to be sent to the Queer Pride Summit in Vancouver. I learned a lot about issues the 2SLGBTQIA+ community are facing across Canada, how this impacts the labour movement, and what initiatives various groups and organizations are implementing to secure the human rights and dignity of the 2SLGBTQIA+ community.

I would like to extend an invitation to everyone in our local to reach out if they are interested in joining the committee, have input for how we could make our committee better, or just have questions or concerns. You can reach out to any executive member you feel comfortable to, and they can pass your message along to me, or you can email me directly at sarah.hlrowland@gmail.com.

In Solidarity,

Sarah Rowland, IDEA committee chair

d. Pensions Committee:

The Pensions Advisory Committee met on May 28, 2024. Along with members of the other unions and management, your local representatives are Michael Rheault and Nykita Downie. The main purpose of the meeting was to review the plan's performance during the previous year. This information was included in the report that all members will have received over the summer, but I will summarize it briefly.

In 2023, there were 1,101 active members, 813 inactive members, that is employees who are not actively contributing to the plan, and 1,052 members receiving pensions. Members 66 years of age or older will have received a 4.7% COLA adjustment and those below 65 will have received a 3.0% COLA adjustment with a 1.7% carry-forward.

Total assets of the pension plan as of 2023 stand at $353.4 million with $9.5 million collected through payroll contributions and $15.2 million paid out to recipients.

Investments made through the plan showed a net return of %11.1. Overall, the plan is considered to be in a strong position with funding ratios over 80%.

Secondly, we reviewed the audit for 2023. Overall, the audit was successful, and all relevant data was used to inform the pension report summarized above.

Finally, the committee reviewed plans to upgrade the pension website. Several options were looked at with the aim of improving accessibility for staff as well as ease of use. The first step of the upgrade was to survey staff in 2023, and we should see changes based on the survey results going forward. There was discussion of employing limited amounts of AI to help navigate the site, but discussion was only preliminary with no plans to implement anything directly at this time. Overall, upgrading is planned to continue until the end of 2025.

In Solidarity,
Michael Rheault, Staff Personal Benefits committee chair

15. Unfinished Business

16. New Business

- a. A question arose as to which reports were being accepted. Kirk explained all are included in the printed document starting with the executive board report, and if you have any specific questions about the reports to reach out to the respective Chairs before the next meeting.
- b. A question arose about whether a motion needs to be passed in order to request that historical records of contracts be posted online, as there are only current ones posted now. The member stated that people may want to access these historical records. Kirk explained that no motion is needed, and that action has already been taken to requested that our Executive Assistant Kira Bradley find and post historical contact records online, and that she is actioning this and will be scanning ones that are not digital. Another question arose asking if the old contracts are on the Labour Relation Board's website. Kirk answered that yes, they should be, as they keep a digital copy on their website. Kirk further explained that he is unsure if the LRB's website is up to date, but we are working to make sure they are up to date on our website.
